

OUR PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVE

Our principal objective is to encourage and promote a high standard in locksmith services.

- to set a high standard that is expected from the profession
- to evaluate, promote and police those members that have achieved and demonstrated this standard
- to encourage those starting in the profession to reach this standard
- to offer an assurance of quality to those using the services of an ICL member and giving the customer recourse if not entirely satisfied
- to ensure that all ICL members are fully police checked and vetted
- to offer information to those in the industry
- to liaise with parliament, relevant authorities, police and industry to always maintain and improve industry standards
- to ensure that all ICL members are fully non-destructive in their entry techniques
- to promote the quality side of our profession to the public and businesses using our services

Our principles:

We aim to promote the highest possible standard in locksmith services

This includes an absolute focus on non-destructive entry techniques where possible

We are not a profit making organisation

We seek to offer an assurance of quality to those using locksmith services

We police our own members and offer full recourse to the customer.
